Uniforms for Counselors Hired Through an Agency

All counselors must wear uniforms every day -- white polos or Robin Hood white T-shirts, and Robin Hood dark green shorts. Because you are coming to work at Robin Hood by using the expense of an agency, we offer clean, used uniforms to you as a courtesy. American counselors are not provided this service. You will receive three shirts and two pairs of shorts, which you must return to us at the end of the summer. Although this amount should be enough for the season, you may wish to supplement it with any plain white polos you have; only Robin Hood issue shorts will be admissible.

Please contact Marie Young for any questions.

It is possible to buy extra clothing, at your expense, if you wish. For those who wish to do so, payment is by check, American Express, Master Card, or Visa charge, or we can deduct payment from your end-of-season salary. Your clothes will be delivered to you at camp.
